Graduate and Family Student Housing
Welcome to UCLA’s University Apartments!

UCLA offers five complexes designed especially for graduate students and students with families. Whether you are a single graduate student, a married student (with or without children), a single parent, or a student with a same-sex domestic partner, UCLA offers you several options for comfortable, convenient, and affordable housing.

Four of these complexes are located in the Palms/Mar Vista area, just five miles from campus. The fifth complex is Weyburn Terrace, UCLA’s newest community for single graduate students, located campus-close in Westwood Village.

University Village
FOR MARRIED STUDENTS & STUDENTS WITH FAMILIES

University Village is a modern, recently constructed complex designed specifically for married students and same-sex domestic partners (with or without children), and single parents. It features air-conditioned unfurnished one-, two-, and three-bedroom units with laundry facilities, parking, and a gated entrance. Kitchens are equipped with appliances, and residents enjoy basic cable T.V. and natural gas service at no extra charge. High-speed Internet and landline telephone connections are available through a local provider.
Child Care Options

As part of its commitment to providing quality child care, UCLA has established a preschool child care facility at University Village. It provides services for nearly 200 children through two programs – UCLA Child Care and University Parents Nursery School – all under one roof.

Due to limited space, parents with preschool age children are urged to call the child care program they are interested in prior to their arrival at UCLA. The costs and eligibility criteria vary for each group.

UCLA Child Care provides excellent programs for children ages two months to six years. Call (310) 825-5086 or visit www.childcare.ucla.edu.

Parent's Nursery School is a cooperative that cares for children two to five years old. Call (310) 397-2735 or visit www.bol.ucla.edu/~upns for more information about this unique program.
Weyburn Terrace is within walking distance to the main campus, Westwood Village, and major bus transportation.
